Subject: Backup of NIC E-mail Services and Update of Alternate E-mail for Portals Using NIC Mail

Sir/ Madam,

This is in reference to this centre earlier mails and the Important Notice for PSUs displayed on the National Informatics Centre (NIC) e-mail portal regarding the migration of university e-mail services. As per the notice, the current e-mail service under the university domain (@yspuniversity.ac.in) will no longer be supported by NIC after 10 December 2025.

The University is in communication with NIC to resolve the matter. In the meantime, to avoid any loss of important e-mails or data, all users are requested to back up their e-mails at the earliest as communicated earlier by forwarding them to an alternate e-mail account.

Furthermore, users are advised to update/change the login credentials associated with NIC e-mail addresses for the portals where NIC e-mail IDs are currently used (such as PFMS, GeM, etc.).

This is for your information and necessary action, please.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Officer Incharge
