No. UHF/SV/Student/2026/- 511-18

Dated: 02/10/2026

NOTICE

Subject: Maintenance of Discipline and Law & Order on the University Campus with particular reference to visits of Hon'ble Governor of HP on 11.10.2026 and Hon'ble Chief Justice of India for Convocation on 22 & 23.11.2026

All students are reminded that under Regulation 6.1.2 of the Academic Regulations of the University the following amount to acts of gross indiscipline:

1. Strike or hunger strike, and boycott of any University function, programme or activity [Regulation 6.1.2(v) and (vi)];
2. Attending or organizing meetings other than those authorized by the competent authority, and participation in such meetings [Regulation 6.1.2(xv)];
3. Instigation, organization of, or participation in strikes, demonstrations or disturbances of any kind, including gheraos and lock-outs, which may disrupt the convocation, examinations, workshops, conferences or other functions of the University [Regulation 6.1.2(xxi)];
4. Recourse to violence, assault, intimidation or rioting; incitement to commit any act of indiscipline; damaging University, public or private property; disorderly behavior in any form; and any act intended or calculated to cause inconvenience, annoyance, injury or damage to any hostel inmate, employee, faculty member, resident, guest or visitor of the University [Regulation 6.1.2(viii), (x), (xiii), (xiv) and (xvi)]. Accordingly,
 - (a) Strikes, Hunger strikes and boycott of classes or of any University function are strictly prohibited;
 - (b) No dharna, demonstration, gherao, lock-out or disturbance of any kind which may disrupt classes, examinations or any other function of the University, or which obstructs any employee in the discharge of duty, shall be held on the campus; and no procession or demonstration of any type shall be taken to the residential area of the campus [Regulation 6.1.2(xvi) and (xxi)]; and, as regards the Central Student's Association or Student's Association, Regulation 16.23(f)];
 - (c) No meeting shall be held on the campus other than one authorized by the competent authority, and in the hostels other than one authorized by the Warden [Regulations 6.1.2(xv) and 14.11.3].

Intimation to any office of the University of a Proposed Strike, dharna or demonstration is not permission for it. A request to hold a meeting on the campus must be made in writing in advance to the Dean(s) of the College concerned (for a meeting of students of more than one College, to the Student's Welfare Officer; for hostel premises, to the Warden), stating the purpose, venue, date and time, and no such meeting shall be held unless and until it is authorized in writing by the competent authority.

Any student who organizes, instigates or participates in a strike, or in any activity which disturbs the peace, order or security of the campus or obstructs the functioning of the University, shall be liable to strict disciplinary action under Chapter VI of the Academic Regulations by the Dean or, where so provided, the Vice-Chancellor, which may extend to withdrawal of Concessions, Fine, Reprimand, Conduct Probation, Rustication and Expulsion [Regulation 6.2], after the student has been given an opportunity to explain his or her conduct and, in the case of rustication or expulsion, after compliance with Regulation 6.2.7.

Absence from classes on account of a Strike or boycott shall, without prejudice to action under Chapter VI, shall also be dealt with under Regulation 4.2. Hostel residents/students are further bound by Regulation 14.11: participating or causing others to participate in strikes, demonstrations or disturbances, and convening or attending unauthorized meetings within a hostel [Regulation 14.11.1(vii) and (viii)], may in addition lead to fine or expulsion from the hostel.

Persons who are neither students nor employees of the University shall not be brought onto, or facilitated in entering; the campus for any strike, dharna, demonstration or meeting, and the Estate/Security Officers shall cause entry to be regulated accordingly.

The University recognizes the right of students to raise issues concerning their studies, fees, facilities and welfare. Such issues will be entertained only when they are raised through the proper channels, which are as follows, and not through strikes, dharnas or demonstrations.

A student who has any grievance, including on matters of fees and hostel charges, may submit it in writing to the Dean of the College concerned or to the Dean Students' Welfare. Grievances of the student community in general shall be placed, through the Central Students' Association or the Students' Association of the College, where it is functioning, before the College Steering Committee or the University Steering Committee constituted under Chapter XVI of the Academic Regulations [Regulations 16.2, 16.3, 16.10 and 16.11], which shall make its recommendations to the competent authority. Where the Association is not functioning, such grievances may be submitted in writing by the Class Representatives or by any group of students to the Dean of the College concerned, who shall place them before the College Steering Committee or, where the matter concerns more than one College, forward them to the University Steering Committee. Every lawful representation so made will be considered and replied. Regulation 16.23(h) further provides that the members of the Central Students' Association or Students' Association (which, under Regulation 16.4 and subject to the exceptions stated therein, comprises all regular and bona fide students of the constituent Colleges pursuing degree programmes) shall not organize or participate in any strike, demonstration, dharna or gherao on any issue that has not been referred to and considered through this procedure.

Students are also reminded that under Regulation 2.14, a candidate's past record of conduct, including acts of indiscipline or the organizing of unlawful demonstrations, is taken into account by the Admission Committee in deciding admission to the University.

This notice is issued by order of the Vice-Chancellor in exercise of the powers of the University under section 7(14), and of the Vice-Chancellor under section 25(2) and (4), of the Himachal Pradesh Universities of Agriculture, Horticulture and Forestry Act, 1986 (Act No. 4 of 1987).
